

I think it's ridiculous to even consider limiting satellite radio's ability to present local traffic, weather, and news. It's a blatant power grab by the radio stations (led by the evil empire, Clear Channel) and an attempt to limit competition.